BERLIN, GERMANY

"They threw themselves on me with bestial fury using rubber truncheons, leather whips and steel rods. They hit particularily at my head, jumping up on tables and chairs and hitting mercilessly at me . . . my face was streaming with blood. My cries for help soon stopped: a few blows with an iron rod and I doubled up and fell unconscious."

"He grabbed me by the arm and walked me across to the police car . . . As he shoved me into the hallway, holding my right arm, he hit me on the right shin bone . . . I fell to the floor and every muscle in my body went limp . . . He then grabbed my right foot and hit me eight or nine times, again and again on the same shin bone with his club. ..Then he twisted the right foot until the bones he had splintered with his club cracked and came thru the flesh, severing an artery. ..It started a hemorrhage and the blood simply poured out of me . . . I was then losing consciousness."

IS COMMUNISM A MENACE IN THE U.S.?

Address to Members The National Civic Federation

By RALPH M. EASLEY

Chairman Executive Council

SUPPOSE that 500 smallpox victims should meet behind closed doors for the avowed purpose of deliberately organizing a campaign to spread the deadly disease with which they were afflicted!

AND SUPPOSE that they had been carefully chosen at twenty district conventions covering the United States, the selection of those respective quotas having been based upon the virulency of the disease and the ability to spread it!

AND SUPPOSE further that it should be discovered that this national convention of disease-breeding men and women had been organized and instructed upon methods of procedure by a foreign government which, under the pretense of friendship, had been admitted to our shores and whose Ambassador was being lauded and feted at public functions throughout the country!

SUPPOSE all this should occur!

Well, that symbolizes exactly what happened at one of the most dangerous gatherings ever held in the United States—a national convention at Cleveland, Ohio during the first week in April. While the disease was not smallpox, it was quite as virulent and even more deadly in its effects—Communism.

But, there are those who say: "There cannot be anything of that sort here. I read the newspapers and I do not see anything about it in their columns." The answer is that, like the Government, the press has little realization of what the Communists are doing in this country. In fact, both the Government and the press will blandly assure you that no such menace exists.

As showing how little the newspapers can know about what is going on even under their very noses, take that great publication, the New York American, which has done so much to expose the dangers of Communism in the United States. The Communists have so many members in its plant at 220 South Street, New York City, that they are even publishing a tabloid paper of their own, called "The Hearst Worker". Of course, they do not flaunt this underground enterprise before the officials of the American but it has been flourishing for two years. Also, we have seen a paper gotten out by the Reds on the World Telegram and we are told that similar conditions exist in other newspaper plants—how many, we do not know. We do know that they are honeycombed by Communists and Socialists, and that those elements are not confined to the mechanical departments but are to be found in the editorial sanctums as well as in the book review, dramatic, art and other departments.

To get back to the smallpox simile: How many Americans know that the spreading throughout our body politic of this deadly poison of Communism, observed in concentrated form at the Cleveland convention referred to, had been ordered by the Third International at Moscow on December 24, 1933—after Commissar Litvinoff's arrival home with U. S. recognition in his pocket, based upon his solemn pledge to President Roosevelt "scrupulously to ownership of property and the destruction of parliamentary and constitutional government. Destructive revolution is inevitable, since the present owners of private property control the military and police forces of the nation and they would not give up their constitutional rights without armed opposition.

If I were in any one of several European countries and were suspected of even dreaming of such a program of agitation, bribery and armed revolution, I would be taken out and shot."

In considering the foregoing emanations from this national Communist leader, it should be borne in mind that he was merely spreading in New York the same virus which is being spread throughout the length and breadth of the land by the Communist Party of the U. S. A. Those who seek comfort in the fact that there are only 25,000 dues-paying members in the Communist Party either ignore or are unaware of the penetrating influence of those trained, active Communists. If only one "Typhoid Mary" could do so much harm, what could not the 500 "Typhoid Marys" who attended the Cleveland Convention, plus the rest of the 25,000 dues-paying "Typhoid Marys," plus the 500,000 "Typhoid Mary" affiliates, do to our land?

Communist Hand Seen in Strike Wave

One answer is found in the strike wave throughout the country which, in accordance with instructions from Moscow, has been developed and accentuated by the immediate entrance of the Communists into such industrial centers as Minneapolis, Detrot, Toledo, San Francisco, Imperial Valley, Birmingham, Baltimore and Camden. It does not require thousands of Communists to instigate a big strike; in fact, a "nucleus" of only six shoe workers tied up that whole industry in Haverhill, Massachusetts, while it took only twenty-two Communists to bring about the Minneapolis strike. They are fanatical zealots who know no defeat. Down them today and they are "on the job" again tomorrow. And yet, national voices are denying that there is any menace in Communism!

Mayor La Guardia came face to face with this damnable doctrine when a band of 1,500 men and women marched to City Hall after holding a demonstration outside the headquarters of the Department of Public Welfare. Shaking his finger in the face of the leader of the Communist sponsors of that demonstration—as well as the riot of a week ago which resulted in the injury of a number of policemen—the Mayor exclaimed:

"You want to see these poor people starve so that you can mislead and incite them to beat the police! We are trying to feed the people and we are doing it, despite the obstacles that people like you are putting in our way. . . . I know your kind, Gaynor. You don't want relief. You want to incite unfortunate people to riot. But you can't bluff me! You really want people to starve to further your own ends."

Deputy Commissioner Howe of the Department of Public Welfare scored these Communists as follows:

"They do not come here to transact business with the Department but to use the Department as a stage for their

LITVINOFF

FOREIGN COMMISSAR OF U.S.S.R.

ALIASES OF LITVINOFF:

From Colonel Rezanof's book: "La Troiseme Internationale Communiste — Le Komintern." p. 48:

Translation of French text: "Meer-Henoch-Movchev-Vallach (Litvinoff), Common law criminal, known as having taken part in the robbery of the postoffice at Tiflis, 13 June, 1906. He escaped to Paris, where, during the search the stolen objects were found. He is head of the Bolshevist Foreign Propaganda. Former German spy, registered by the Bureau as spying on the allies".

With this printing we announce to our readers that Mr. Litvinoff, the man of many aliases, is now, September, 1935, the President of the Council of the League of Nations. His elevation to that high honor is easily understood when one knows that at an executive session of the Third Jewish World Conference, held at Geneva, Aug. 20 to 23, 1934, "expressed its unequivocal approval of the admission of the Soviet Union to the League of Nations" * * * and that Soviet Russia should avoid entanglements in the Far East until "it had accomplished more serious tasks in Europe." (World Service, Nov. 1, 1934.)

In the light of this statement we copy the following from the Vienna Telegraf of March 9, 1920: "The Jew is coming up as a world ruler. The countries like Russia, Germany and Austria are already ruled by the Jews openly and the Jews are the leaders of the people. Soon other countries will also follow this leadership and Judaism shall spread over the whole world its banner, the banner of Jerusalem."

"The Lady Patriot" Replies

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
JUG 31 1978

by ELIZABETH DILLING

Author of "The Red Network"

The "Evanston News-Index" asks for my reply to the three and one-half page article entitled "The Lady Patriot's Book" appearing in the January 8th issue of that "advocate of revolutionary Socialism", "The New Republic". This article, which is a flatteringly frantic attempt to discredit my anti-Red book "The Red Network", represents the cooperative efforts of one Harry T. Moore, the editors of "The New Republic", and 115 other radicals who, like the editors, are listed in "The Red Network". The editors called upon these radicals to help deny the accuracy of "Red Network" statements concerning themselves, and they print the "best", in their opinion, of the denials collected. I have announced that if any radical, or any conservative, discovers an error in "The Red Network", I would be glad to have it pointed out and to correct it. But if the utterly futile list in "The New Republic" is all that can be discovered against it, the book is more accurate down to the pettiest detail than Ivory Soap is pure. Those radicals who attempt to disclaim facts by equivocation or prevarication merely add cowardice or mendacity to their records.

While all of the denials in "The New Republic" are so phrased as to make them appear to be honest denials of "Red Network" untruths, they fall into three classes: (1) Petty hair-splitting and equivocation, as illustrated by the radical who denies he was ever a Unitarian minister; he was minister of a Unitarian church. (2) Denials of statements claimed to be in "The Red Network", but which are not. These show either an amazing inaccuracy on the part of these critics of inaccuracy, or, as the Reds love to allege, an attempt to "frame" me by manufacturing errors for the purpose of denying them—silly tactics, since anyone can check this for himself in the book. (3) Ludicrously bold denials of facts, as illustrated by the Communist leader now teaching at a Party school, etc., etc., who, to help "The New Republic" in its good work of booting "The Red Network", denies his entire well-known Red record.

Whom were these denials intended to fool? Certainly not those in the radical movement, the bulk of the readers of "The New Republic"! Certainly not myself! I surmise that they were furnished in order to give fellow radicals something they can use to wave in the faces of skeptics with the same cry the Reds have used about the Congressional Report, the N. Y. State Lusk Report, and every other authentic report exposing them: "Oh, didn't you know that report has been discredited?" And the proper, though slangy, reply to this is: "Discredited? Sez who? Sez the radicals. No one else!"

Mr. Moore, who writes the "human interest" part of the article, tries so hard to paint me as a sort of silly emotional moron leaping about to catch imaginary specks in the air, citing in support the report that as a school girl I had a "quick, giddy laugh". (Unusual!) Ah me! Nor is this all. He reveals that my mother is related to Edwin Booth, the great actor, and his unfortunate brother, John Wilkes Booth, but refrains from dragging in Fanny Davenport, Empress Eugenie, and the long line of Harding Bishops and Kirkpatrick knights. He unearths the "scandal" ("Scandal" is right, in Red opinion!) that as a school girl I wrote "thirty and forty-page letters" about my Bible readings to my "friends". Here he reveals the source of his information, for I wrote such letters to only one friend, the sister of Ethelwyn Mills, deservedly listed in the N. Y. State Lusk Report, the Congressional or Fish Report, and "The Red Network" as a radical.

Mr. Moore's data about me is piffle and full of piffling inaccuracies. I was never, as he claims, "sent to the Southwest" by my mother, but did accompany her there more than once. I did not meet my husband "after" I left college, nor was he "then sing-

INTERNATIONAL "NEW" DEALISM

The fact that a "New" Deal has been proposed in Great Britain, Canada, and Switzerland is sufficient evidence of its international character. Is this a part of a world conspiracy?

The enclosed comparison prepared from authentic documents can leave in the mind of the reader no doubt of its inception and purpose.

Mr. Roosevelt accepted the Democratic nomination and pledged himself to support the Democratic Platform. His campaign promises and the Platform have been repudiated and instead the program of the Communist International in substance (as interpreted by the Communist Party in America and the Socialist Party) has been substituted.

CRIMINAL ELEMENTS WHOSE ULTIMATE AIM IS TO OVERTHROW THE GOVERNMENT AND ESTABLISH A "SOVIET AMERICA" ON OUR SHORES WILL BE COMBATED BY A CITIZENS' COMMITTEE OF FIVE HUNDRED

Presented by
RALPH M. EASLEY
Chairman Executive Council, The National Civic Federation

June 2, 1936.

Mr. Archibald E. Stevenson,
General Counsel, The National Civic Federation,
570 Lexington Avenue,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Stevenson:

I cannot believe that you are aware that your name has been used to sponsor a misleading document. Knowing your integrity and your desire for truth, I cannot believe that you will fail to protest vigorously against any further use of your name by people who hold integrity and truth so lightly.

The document I refer to is 25 lines long and contains 12 mis-statements, ranging from the inaccurate, through the libelous, to the lie. My contentions are provable in or out of court;—yet the document bears your name; and I beg you to spare no effort to approve or disapprove my statement. If I am correct, there is but one honorable course open to you;—which is to repudiate the document.

The document is a letter written by Ralph M. Easley on the letterhead of The National Civic Federation and dated May 18, 1936. In paragraph two it states "these vicious onslaughts [connected with the seamen's strike] emanate from fifteen Socialist and Communist organizations which are represented on a so-called Citizens' Committee for the Aid of Striking Seamen. That body, while claiming that its purpose is to help the worker better his condition, is in fact stirring up industrial unrest in furtherance of the Communist program to establish a 'Soviet Republic' on our shores."

The truth of the matter is as follows: 1) The Citizens' Committee for Striking Seamen is not supported by the radical organizations charged by Mr. Easley. Of the list of 14 members of the Advisory Council (whence Mr. Easley got his notions) who belong to organizations I find that four belong to non-political religious organizations; four to non-sectarian, non-Communist publications; one to a group of city Democrats; one to the City Fusion Party; two to non-political civic organizations (Consumers' Research, etc.); and only two to active union liberals. 2) I do find that there are nine organizations who have, as organizations, concerned themselves with the strike:

1) The Morro Castle Safety at Sea Association, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Smith, survivors of the Mohawk disaster. They would be surprised to learn that they were considered Bolsheviks because they agreed with a competent jury and a government committee that the conditions on that ship were deplorable and avoidable and that criminal [illegible] of the Constitution, anyone who considers that the English have better laws than we have regarding banking or old age pensions, or that the Danes have better maritime laws than we have, or anyone who attempts to view labor other than as an enemy, quite simply as a Bolshevik. This method is the method of Mr. Easley's letter. I cannot willingly believe that it is yours. Believe me,

Sincerely yours,
S. L. M. BARLOW.

New York, June 11, 1936.

Mr. Samuel L. M. Barlow,

New York City.

My dear Mr. Barlow:

I have read with great care your letter of June 2 and wish to thank you for speaking so plainly. You are quite right in your belief that I would protest vigorously against the use of my name for the spread of any false information and would attempt to correct, as promptly as possible, any mis-statement of fact. Under these circumstances, you are entitled to know precisely what I have said respecting the Citizens' Committee for Striking Seamen and the reasons which have led to my conclusions. I will thank you if you can point out to me where I have misquoted any document or misrepresented it by tearing a part of it from the context.

THE COMMUNIST PLAN

Without in any way undertaking to characterize the motives of any of the members of the Citizens' Committee for Striking Seamen, I have stated my conviction that it was lending its influence, whether consciously or unconsciously, to carrying out a part of the plan of the Communist International.

I am quite sure that you will not dispute the point that the objective of the Communist Party of the United States is the establishment of a Soviet America. But should there be any doubt on this point, let me quote from page 72 of a pamphlet entitled, "Why Communism?" by M. J. Olgin, Second Revised Edition, printed May, 1935 by the Workers Library Publishers, a New York corporation of which Earl Browder is the President. The booklet says:

> "Under the leadership of the Communist Party the workers of the U. S. A. will proceed from struggle to struggle, from victory to victory, until, rising in a revolution, they will crush the capitalist state, establish a Soviet State, abolish the cruel and bloody system of capitalism and proceed to the upbuilding of Socialism."

In passing, it should be noted that an article or

The LaFollette Committee May Get You

Are you opposed to Communism? Do you uphold, OPENLY that is, the American form of government as against Red dictatorship? Do you argue for private property rights, personal control over one's own employment and business and religious freedom, guaranteed by the Constitution?

Perhaps you express resentment at the treasonable machinations of the Communist Party, the American section of Russia's Comintern, now steadily advancing the Sovietization and enslavement of America by every means; by legislation through its Washington henchmen; by building the deceptive "People's Front" (such as rules France and Red Spain, under Moscow's direction); by building the C. I. O. on the pattern of the revolutionary I. W. W. "One Big Union" to render the entire nation helpless with a general strike during which the long planned revolutionary coup for power might capture our people, stunned, unprepared, unorganized, unsupplied with necessities of life.

If so, BEWARE! The LaFollette Committee may get you if you don't watch out! Is this a joke? Indeed, it is not.

"Every Factory a Fortress"

Of course, if you own a factory, even though its windows and machinery are periodically smashed and truck loads of outside Red agitators brought in to pose as "workers" on strike, even though your loyal workers want their jobs and are beaten up to keep them from working, and though the Leninist slogan of the Communist Party is "Every Factory a Fortress!" (they issue a pamphlet by that title) —yet, if you employ anyone to tell you whether there are Communists in your factory or when it is to be made a fortress, you have probably either already been up before the LaFollette Committee or may be soon, to be grilled like a criminal for employing "Spies" in restraint of "collective bargaining". This is preliminary to legislation intended to punish you severely for any interference with Communist activities, which are always misnamed "labor" activities. Labor is really the heaviest loser. The September 15, 1937 bulletin of the Associated Farmers of California, Inc. quotes from the Congressional

About "Mission To Moscow" And The Moscow Trials

Davies' Film Whitewashes Stalin's Crimes Against Labor

By ALBERT GOLDMAN

The author of this article, a well-known labor lawyer, acted as Leon Trotsky's attorney at the historic hearings in Mexico conducted by the Dewey Commission investigating the Moscow trials.

Without an understanding of politics it is impossible to explain the appearance of the film "Mission To Moscow." Without an understanding of politics it is impossible to explain the [illegible] film "Mission To Moscow" by Joseph E.

John Dewey Hits Film As Falsification

The film "Mission To Moscow" is an example of the kind of "propaganda which falsifies history through distortion, omission or pure invention of facts," according to a letter in the May 9 N. Y. Times written by John Dewey, noted American educator, and Suzanne La Follette, liberal writer, who served respectively as the chairman and secretary of the International Commission of Inquiry into the Moscow trials.

The Dewey-LaFollette letter also declares:

100% GPU Lie Filmed With Govt. Blessing

By John G. Wright

"Mission To Moscow" is now being peddled to movie audiences as a documentary film of events from 1936 to date as allegedly seen through the eyes of ex-Ambassador Joseph E. Davies. Nothing could be further from the truth. "Mission To Moscow" is false from beginning to end. More exactly, it is a 100% Stalinist lie.

The resources of Hollywood and of the press have been mobilised — with the blessing of the authorities in Washington — to present as the "truth" the GPU version of the Moscow trials, during which the prosecution was unable to produce a single shred of evidence to substantiate its case.

It is an infinitely easier task

Mussolini Also Liked the Frameups

"Mission To Moscow," the motion picture glorification and whitewash of the Moscow trial frameups, shows that Washington and the "democracies" approve of Stalin's infamous murders of his working class political opponents.

But they aren't the only ones. The fascists — above

The extraordinary story, revealed for the first time, of how a so-called "liberal" publication attempts to regiment thinking Americans into the official Communist Party line, told by the author of the famed Assignment In Utopia...for years in the forefront of the fight against Fascism and Communism, Eugene Lyons distinguished himself as United Press correspondent in Russia and as editor of The American Mercury.

COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS*

Dr. J. B. Matthews

I am not going to deliver a sermon, but I am going to paraphrase a text from the sacred Scriptures. You will find the original in the 23rd chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew.

Woe unto you, Communist front organizations! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but are within full of the dead bones of totalitarianism, and of all degradation.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS 3 SEP 20 1978 COPY EXCHANGE & GIFT DIVISION

Even so ye also outwardly appear progressive unto men, but within ye are full of deceitfulness, seditious iniquity, and revolutionary intrigue.

The white on the outside of the Pharisaical sepulchres in Jesus' day was a pretended reverence for the Hebrew Prophets. Actually, the Pharisees had only contempt for the things for which the prophets stood. The white on the outside of the sepulchres of red totalitarianism is a pretended concern for peace, civil liberties, relief, freedom, democracy, and general human welfare; but in every land where the red totalitarians have set up their slave system, they have struck savagely at these noble ideals.

Communist front organizations in the United States usually incorporate one or more of these worthy but pretended objectives in their titles. Thus we have the American League for Peace and Democracy, the American Committee for Spanish Freedom, the Civil Rights Congress, the Spanish Refugee Relief, and so on endlessly. These high-sounding titles wholly belie the inner workings and ultimate objectives of the Communist front organizations.

No more succinct statement of the deceitfulness of the Communist front organization has been written (in official documents) than that which appeared in the brief of the Department of Justice in its case for the deportation of Harry Bridges. The brief said: "Testimony on front organizations showed that they were represented to the public for some legitimate reform objectives, but actually used by the Communist Party to carry on its activities, pending the time when the Communists believe they can seize power through revolution." (page 11 of the Attorney General's brief, May 28, 1942).

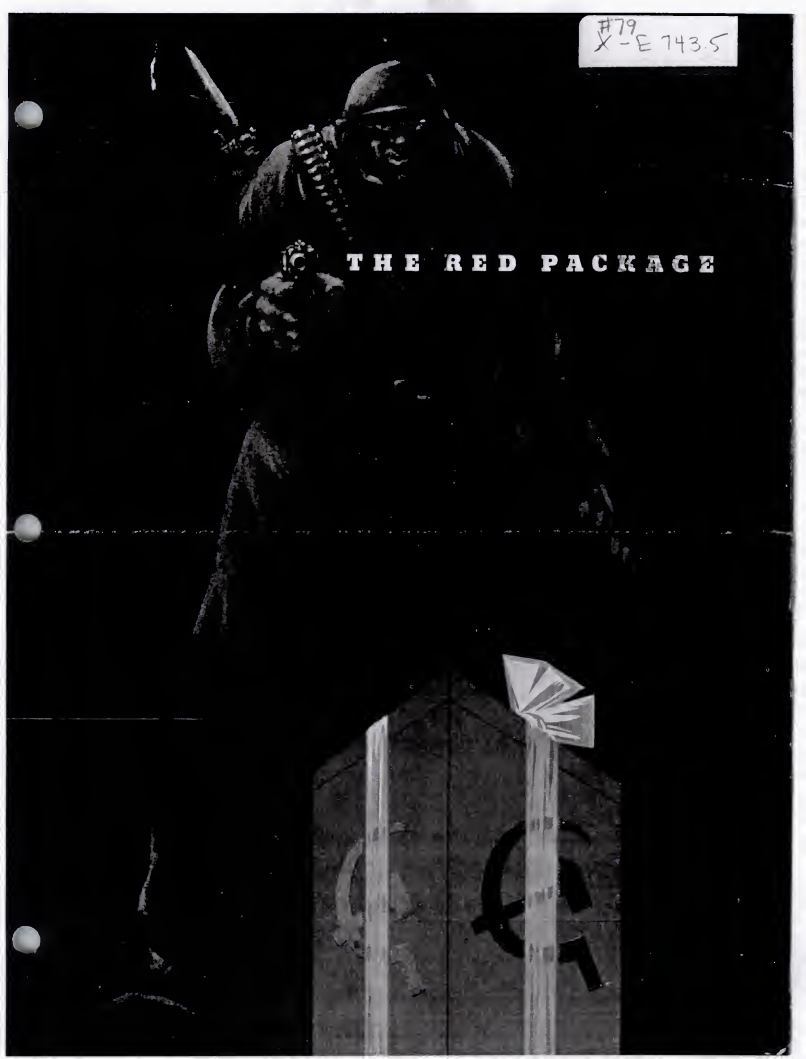

Looking at the Communist front organization from the standpoint of its historical evolution, we find, roughly speaking, three stages of development:

1. The mass organization, or "transmission belt," of the 'twenties.
2. The "united front" organization of the early 'thirties.
3. The front organization of the past decade.

Willi Muenzenberg, one of the top Communist leaders in Germany, was the leading exponent of the theory and tactics of the Communist mass organization. In a speech delivered at the Sixth Congress of the Communist International in Moscow on July 20, 1928, Muenzenberg spoke of the masses of non-Party workers "who have not yet mustered the courage to take the final step and join the

The Architects Behind The World Communist Conspiracy

By Ron Gostick, Editor
The Canadian Intelligence Service

"The Architects Behind the World Communist Conspiracy strips aside the censorship veil and shows the reader who and what are back of the world Marxist revolution, now consuming Christianity and mankind. It is increasingly alarming that the great newspapers dare not, and the radio networks cannot, reveal these facts, without which no man can understand Communism. I urge every man who loves liberty to read Ron Gostick's fine, honest little book."

EDITOR'S NOTE: Can Communist influences be eliminated completely from the U. S.—from labor unions, Government and private groups?

How great a threat is Communist infiltration? Are "liberals" being duped?

To learn what influences are at work and how best the U. S. can take action against Communism, U. S. News & World Report invited Pat McCarran, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and of its Internal Security Subcommittee, for an interview before he left Washington for a Western trip. Questions and answers follow.

PATRICK A. MCCARRAN, whose parents came from Ireland, was born and educated in Nevada. He was a farmer and stock raiser, studying law in his spare time. He served two years in the Nevada Legislature. As a lawyer he progressed rapidly—in Nevada's boom towns first, then district attorney for Nye County, then a private practice in Reno.

In 1913, Mr. McCarran won election to the Nevada Supreme Court. While there he wrote an opinion on palm-print identification that is used by Scotland Yard as a text. He was elected to the U. S. Senate in 1932, re-elected regularly since.

Q What would you say, Senator McCarran, is the main objective of your Committee—the Internal Security Committee?

A We have a number of objectives, but they all involve questions affecting the security of this country. Perhaps you might say the main objective of the Committee at the moment is to find out truthfully what led up to our present situation in Asia.

At the present time, one task force is working on an investigation of the Institute of Pacific Relations, and it has been ever since we started.

Another task force has been working for many months on the question of infiltration of Communism into labor unions in this country, and we have other task forces working on other lines of the actual operation of Communism in the various phases of our national life.

We also have task forces watching the administration and enforcement of the various provisions of the Internal Security Act.

Q Has there formed in your mind a pattern of what the Communist technique is with respect to influence on any of our policies?

A I can see certain outlines. It's so broad, it's so colossal, that it's hardly something that you can express in a short time.

First of all, the object of the world Communist conspiracy is to communize the world. There is no question about that at all. And they are going to do it not by war particularly—they don't want a war that will involve them directly—but by infiltration, by conditioning our thinking, by propaganda, by the Communist version of thought control.

Let's take our own country. They have come in here and some of our best-educated and most brilliant people have lent themselves to Communist methods and to the Communist way of thinking. Unhappily even some of our big educational institutions have lent themselves, in one way or another, to the activities of the Communists.

Q Innocently and otherwise?

A Yes. The Communists have infiltrated through various channels. For instance, they have been great users of the diplomatic channel, coming into this country under diplomatic immunity. The fact of the matter is that certain diplomatic centers, the embassies, legations, consulates of Communist and Communist-satellite countries, and in some cases the United Nations delegations from those countries, have been the cells from which Communism has radiated throughout the country.

Q They have been used as part of the apparatus?

A Yes. Time and again we get testimony that people who have come here from behind the Iron Curtain, by design and by direction, for subversive purposes, have gone directly to the embassies and got their instructions. In some instances they have gone directly to an individual, sometimes in diplomatic status and sometimes not. I will say that we have, to my mind, convincing evidence of that—anyone would be convinced by it.

Now, when you get one of those individuals on the stand and ask him with regard to the party he contacted, "Did you know he was a Communist?" he may say, "Yes, I knew he was a Communist," or he may just say, "Well, I was told to go to him. I didn't ask him if he was a Communist. I didn't ask him if he had a card. I didn't ask him if he belonged to the party. I was told to go to him, and I did and so got my instructions."

A Slanted Guide to Library Selections

HQ1 X-E 743.5

By OLIVER CARLSON

AN IMPRESSIVE, cheery-eyed old lady, Miss Helen E. Haines, who lives in Pasadena, California, has more to do with determining what books go onto the shelves of your public libraries than anyone else in the whole country.

Helen E. Haines is the dean of American librarians. For half a century or more she helped direct the growth of the American Library Association. Her love of books, her wide reading, her enthusiasm, her mastery of the library arts, her skill as a teacher, lecturer and writer—all these combined to make her a key figure among those who operate and direct our thousands of libraries. Her views and recommendations on book selections have carried—and still carry—tremendous weight. She is, so to speak, the librarians' librarian.

A few months ago Columbia University Press brought out a new and revised edition of Miss Haines's magnum opus, "Living With Books." The new edition, wrote Miss Haines, was needed "to show the ever-enlarging flow of books through our own times as manifestation of, and accompaniment to, the surging streams of history we are living in."

> For a dozen of the great regional divisions of books [she says] I have sought to present a broad synthesis of dominant subject, to indicate variant viewpoints, to balance opposed opinion, to be, so far as possible, comprehensive and objective throughout.

"Of all the thousands who are waiting to welcome the second edition of 'Living With Books,' the thirty-six most joyous ones are the teachers of book selection in the country's library schools . . ." declared Althea Warren, former chief librarian of the Los Angeles Public Library, in her foreword to the revised edition.

To all who have known Miss Haines's long and honorable career, her objectivity as well as her open-mindedness were beyond question. Her recommendations on newer books—as on older ones—therefore carried tremendous authority. Since it was first published in 1935, "Living With Books" has become the bible of librarians everywhere. In the 10,000 or more public, private, high school and college libraries of the United States, no textbook for librarians is more highly regarded. It is, as the Bookman's Manual declared, "the standard compendium of the art of book selection." The California Librarian says of the revised edition:

> This book is the text on book selection. Library school students can hardly appreciate how fortunate they are to have it . . . it needs no recommendation to librarians. In fact, we would give you warning that once you dip into it you are lost.

I have been doing more than dipping into Miss Haines's book. I have read carefully both the original 1935 edition and the 1950 revised edition. I can appreciate the enthusiasm of librarians for this textbook. It is well organized and filled with information of value to every library specialist. It evaluates hundreds of volumes. Each chapter has a list of recommended books. Above all, the book is easy to read. No wonder librarians swear by it.

THERE is, however, a profound—and dangerous—difference between the 1935 edition and that of 1950. For at some point in the intervening years Miss Haines "discovered" Soviet Russia and the Communist philosophy. Like all new converts, she has lost no opportunity in revising her book to play up her discovery. In fact, the major impression I get from a comparison of the original with the revised edition is the strong pro-Soviet bias of the latter. Miss Haines may think she is still objective, but in fact she has now become a propagandist for the Stalinist way of life.

The prestige enjoyed by Miss Haines's book has carried over to this new edition. Without doubt large numbers of librarians are already selecting books based upon her recommendations, without knowing that the cards have been stacked.

In the 1935 edition of "Living With Books," "communism" was not listed in the index (despite the fact that communism had been a major issue in world politics for nearly 18 years). In the 1950 edition there are 31 items under that heading. The USSR, as such, was unlisted in 1935. There were 17 items under it in 1950. Marxian philosophy was unlisted in the first edition. There are 36 items under that head in the new edition.

The tremendous power wielded by book reviewers who were apologists and defenders of the Soviet government and communism has been reported in detail by several writers during the past year. Miss Haines, however, insists that the opposite is true.

> In the literature of the war and postwar years the clash of nationalisms, the conflict of ideologies, kindled impassioned warfare; and the great reviewing combat arena of the period is that devoted to books about Russia. Balanced judgment and fair understanding were obscured and the scales of American public opinion were weighted by prejudice and hostility of a strong anti-Soviet "bloc" of well-known reviewers, so that impartial, adequate book selection in this field deteriorated in many library collections. [Italics mine.]

Librarians are warned by Miss Haines of the current "hysteria" against all books and publications friendly to communism. Political censorship, she insists, "has drawn strength from postwar reaction." She is determined to stop the "witch hunts"

NEW YORK COURT OF APPEALS
ESTABLISHES SANCTUARY OF COMMUNIST-FRONTERS

New York, N. Y. — In mid-July the New York Court of Appeals, in a 5-2 decision written by Judge Adrian P. Burke, delivered a common-sense broadside which shatters the sanctuary from criticism so often claimed by Communist-fronters.

The case in point was a libel suit brought against the publishers of Red Channels, 1950 book listing 151 entertainment personalities with Communist-front affiliations. Joe Julian, actor and playwright, conceded the truth of the two CP-front affiliations alleged against him in the publication, yet claimed damage on the ground that he was made out to be an actual Communist and that, generally, to comment on his Communist-front activities was neither fair nor relevant.

First brought in the Supreme Court, N. Y. City, the action was dismissed by Justice Irving Saypol, for failure to make a case. The Court of Appeals decision sustains Judge Saypol and in a 16-page opinion sets forth considerations which bear decisively on the issue: Is it right or not to draw public attention to persons with Communist-front affiliations?

The "sanctuary" doctrine invoked by or on behalf of Communists, Fifth Amendment witnesses and persons with front records appears in various forms:

A) Two unions, AFTRA and Actors Equity Association, "condemned" AWARE in 1955 for citing some of their members and their Communist-front connections, denouncing it as blacklisting, interference in internal union affairs, invasion of political freedom, etc.

B) Playwright Arthur Miller (whose forty-some Communist-front affiliations were cited in AWARE Publication 18) admitted them substantially before the House Committee on Un-American Activities and, though saying he would not repeat them, stated that he considered "artists" a privileged group with a right of "advocacy" not to be questioned.

C) The Report on Blacklisting in films and broadcasting recently issued by the Fund for the Republic is impregnated with the notion that to question and criticize persons about their Communist connections is unfair and irrelevant, perhaps violating the Bill of Rights.

D) John Henry Faulk, CBS disc-jockey and 2nd VP of AFTRA-NY local, is currently suing AWARE, Inc. for $500,000 because AWARE Publication 18 noted that his name or services had been used some seven times by Communist-connected causes.

There have been many other instances of the demand for immunity from criticism both in the field of entertainment-communications and elsewhere.

The sum of the "sanctuary" doctrine is a suicidal proposition that Communism, Communists and their helpers cannot be exposed and opposed without violating the Constitution of the United States — while everyone else is supposed to be fair game.

Now, in the Julian decision, the New York Court of Appeals has organized considerations which unravel the robe of immunity - and has done so with scrupulous respect for legal precedent and constitutional guarantees.
